

Foundations of Theatre - This class is designed to introduce students to the basics of theatre production and acting. The class will cover theatre vocabulary, understanding body language, vocal techniques and public speaking. Students will be exposed to different acting techniques and improvisation.