

Musical Theatre I - This class will explore the history of American Musical Theatre from 1910 through the present day. Different styles of music, dance and performance will be explored. Scenes and songs will be learned from each decade.