

Technical Theatre - In this class, students work independently and collaboratively on selected projects in the technical (backstage) areas of theatre. These are set construction, costumes, sound, lights, design work, etc. A wide range of projects allows students to work creatively. Teamwork, cooperation and dependability are stressed, and each student is expected to meet deadlines.